1. Summer Camps – The new Teen Camp was well received by parents and teens. We ended up serving twice as many children in that age group, and because we moved them out of Holland Brook Summer Rec had no discipline issues at Holland Brook this year. We had a number of calls from parents after the program started requesting additional weeks. Unfortunately, it is not possible to take additional campers after the programs starts do to bus size and entrance fees to various destinations. We anticipate we will have even more demand for this program next year.

3. Fall Registration – Registration for Fall programs is open and going well.
